

GAD spearheads 2019 Women's Trade Fair

On March 15, the Women's Trade Fair was conducted in line with the celebration of the National Women's Month.

A ribbon-cutting ceremony was done to officially open the trade fair.

Themed as "Showcasing and Recognizing Women and Extension Adapters in Profitable Enterprising," the trade fair showcased the products and services of the university's adopters of community development projects.

The products and services exhibited during the event were the following: Taro Chips of Brgy. Catandaan, Nasugbu; Peanut Brittle of Brgy. Talahib Pandayan; Bread and Macaroons of Integrated People Empowerment Movement Inc.; Pastillas/Mazapan Yema of San Juan, Batangas; Peanut Butter and Native Pig Production of Lobo, Batangas; Organic Vegetables of Mabisa EcoFarm of Lobo, Batangas; Tour Guides of Lobo, Batangas; Hilot (Massage) of Malvar, Batangas; Manicurists of Kumintang Ilaya, Batangas City; Tamarind Jam of PIFADECO Rosario, Batangas; and Fabricon of Matamis, Rosario, Batangas.

The extension adapters were also given recognition for their sustained engagement with the university for community development.

GAD hosts Short Clip Contest for Women's Month

As part of the university's celebration of the 2019 Women's Month, the office of the Gender and Development in partnership with Focus BatStateU Camera Club hosted a short clip contest in line with the event's theme, "We Make Change Work for Women."

The competition was open to BatStateU students from all campuses. Participants were required to develop a two to four-minute video clip focusing on making change work for women with special needs.
