EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Batangas State University Freedom of Information (FOI) Manual

Pursuant to the Executive Order No. 02, series of 2016 signed by His Excellency on 23 July 2016, President Rodrigo Roa Duterte, directing to all government offices of the Executive Branch to formulate their respective implementing details within 120 days from its effectivity, this proposed Manual sets forth the specific rules and regulations on the basic right of the stakeholders of the University to information. The said order finds its legal bases on Section 28, Article II and Section 7, Article III of the 1987 Philippine Constitution and under the provisions of Republic Act (RA) No. 10173 or the Data Privacy Act.

In brief, the BatStateU Freedom of Information (FOI) Manual is culled from the FOI Manual of the CHED with certain modifications to fit with the organizational structure of the University and the documents in custody of BatStateU. The provisions of the Batangas State University FOI Manual are summarized to wit:

1. As to purpose and coverage. The purpose of this Manual is to provide the process by which the Batangas State University (BatStateU), its extension campuses, units and offices deal with requests of information received under Executive Order No. 2, s. 2016 on Freedom of Information (FOI). The Manual shall cover all requests for information directed to the BatStateU and all its extension campuses and offices under it.
2. As to responsible officers. Considering the difference with the organizational structure of the University and CHED, the present manual considers the following persons as the responsible officers herein: (a) FOI Receiving Officer (FRO)- To be identified by the ExeCom (preferably from the Records Office); (b) FOI Decision Maker (FDM)- Vice President and/or Executive Director who has primary concern over the requested document; and (c) FOI Appellate Authority- The University President shall be the Appellate Authority as regards denied requests.
3. As to the substance. Substantially, the content of the CHED Manual and the present manual are the same. The terms defined as used in the Manual are the same. It provides for the proper procedure for requesting certain information allowed by existing laws rules and regulations and well as the remedies in case of denial. It likewise provides that reasonable fees may be imposed for the reproduction of the documents requested. The liability for non-compliance of the Manual is also set forth in herein where the procedural due process per Revised Rules on Administrative Cases in the Civil Service shall be applicable. Standard forms are likewise devised to expedite all requests.

4. As to documents allowed and exempted. As a general rule, all public documents held by the University may be requested by a party concerned subject to the procedures outlined in the Manual. As an exception, those documents specifically listed under the Manual as exempted (e.g. sensitive personal information, Section 6 (2.1) therein and listed under Annex B thereof) cannot be allowed to be subject of requests, hence requests regarding such documents may be denied following the proper procedure.

With the adoption of the BatStateU FOI Manual, the University can fully comply not only with the requirements of EO No. 02 but likewise with all constitutional and statutory provisions affirming the basic right of people to information. That public trust is an essential attribute of public office; the Batangas State University must have to continually serve our stakeholders with utmost transparency. It must be recognized that with the affirmation of the right to information, active participation of all our stakeholders in the operations of the University will likewise be acknowledged. Such participation between the management and the stakeholders is the very core of the success of the University in honing the youth through provision of quality education.

The same was presented to the Academic and Administrative Councils of the University and was duly approved through Resolution 0308-2, S. 2017, to the Board of Regents Finance Committee which likewise approved the same, and to the Board of Regents during its 53rd Regular Meeting and was approved through BoR Res. No. 587, s. 2017. The University deemed it necessary to adhere to the policy, thus providing the BatStateU FOI Manual for the adoption of all of its stakeholders.

THEREFOR

WHEREAS, pursuant to Section 28, Article II of the 1987 Constitution, the State adopts and implements a policy of full public disclosure of all its transactions involving public interest, subject to reasonable conditions prescribed by law;

WHEREAS, Section 7, Article III of the Constitution guarantees the right of the people to information on matters of public concern;

WHEREAS, the incorporation of this right in the Constitution is a recognition of the fundamental role of free and open exchange of information in a democracy, meant to enhance transparency and accountability in government official acts, transactions, or decisions;

WHEREAS, the Executive Branch recognizes the urgent need to operationalize these Constitutional provisions;

WHEREAS, the President, under Section 17, Article VII of the Constitution, has control over all executive departments, bureaus and offices, and the duty to ensure that the laws be faithfully executed;

WHEREAS, the Data Privacy Act of 2012 (R.A. 10173), including its Implementing Rules and Regulations, strengthens the fundamental human right of privacy and of communication while ensuring the free flow of information to promote innovation and growth;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RODRIGO ROA DUTERTE, President of the Philippines, by virtue of the powers vested in me by the Constitution and existing laws, do hereby order:

THE PRESIDENT OF THE PHILIPPINES

SECTION 1. Definition. For the purpose of this Executive Order, the following terms shall mean:

- (a) "Information" shall mean any records, documents, papers, reports, letters, contracts, minutes and transcripts of official meetings, maps, books, photographs, data, research materials, films, sound and video recordings, magnetic or other tapes, electronic data, computer-stored data, or any other like or similar data or materials recorded, stored or archived in whatever format, whether offline or online, which are made, received, or kept in or under the control and custody of any government office pursuant to law, executive order, and rules and regulations or in connection with the performance or transaction of official business by any government office.
- (b) "Official record/records" shall refer to information produced or received by a public officer or employee, or by a government office in an official capacity or pursuant to a public function or duty.
- (c) "Public record/records" shall include information required by laws, executive orders, rules, or regulations to be entered, kept and made publicly available by a government office.

SECTION 2. Coverage. This order shall cover all government offices under the Executive Branch, including but not limited to the national government and all its offices, departments, bureaus, and instrumentalities, including government-owned or -controlled corporations, and state universities and colleges. Local government units (LGUs) are enjoined to observe and be guided by this Order.

SECTION 3. Access to Information. Every Filipino shall have access to information, official records, public records, and documents and papers pertaining to official acts, transactions or decisions, as well as to government research data used as basis for policy development.

SECTION 4. Exception. Access to information shall be denied when the information falls under any of the exceptions enshrined in the Constitution, existing laws or jurisprudence.

The Department of Justice and the Office of the Solicitor General are hereby directed to prepare an inventory of such exceptions and submit the same to the Office of the President within thirty (30) calendar days from the date of effectivity of this Order.

The Office of the President shall thereafter immediately circularize the inventory of exceptions for the guidance of all government offices and instrumentalities covered by this Order and the general public.

Said inventory of exceptions shall periodically be updated to properly reflect any change in existing law and jurisprudence and the Department of Justice and the Office of the Solicitor General are directed to update the inventory of exceptions as the need to do so arises, for circularization as hereinabove stated.

SECTION 5. Availability of SALN. Subject to the provisions contained in Sections 3 and 4 of this Order, all public officials are reminded of their obligation to file and make available for scrutiny their Statements of Assets, Liabilities and Net Worth (SALN) in accordance with existing laws, rules and regulations, and the spirit and letter of this Order.

SECTION 6. Application and Interpretation. There shall be a legal presumption in favor of access to information, public records and official records. No request for information shall be denied unless it clearly falls under any of the exceptions listed in the inventory or updated inventory of exceptions circularized by the Office of the President as provided in Section 4 hereof.

The determination of the applicability of any of the exceptions to the request shall be the responsibility of the Head of the Office which has custody or control of the information, public record or official record, or of the responsible central or field officer duly designated by him in writing.

In making such determination, the Head of the Office or his designated officer shall exercise reasonable diligence to ensure that no exception shall be used or availed of to deny any request for information or access to public records or official records if the denial is intended primarily and purposely to cover up a crime, wrongdoing, graft or corruption.

SECTION 7. Protection of Privacy. While providing access to information, public records, and official records, responsible officials shall afford full protection to an individual's right to privacy as follows:

- (a) Each government office per Section 2 hereof shall ensure that personal information in its custody or under its control is disclosed or released only if it is material or relevant to the subject matter of the request and its disclosure is permissible under this Order or existing laws, rules or regulations;

- (c) Any employee or official of a government office per Section 2 hereof who has access, authorized or unauthorized, to personal information in the custody of the office must not disclose that information except when authorized under this Order or pursuant to existing laws, rules or regulations.
